

Ballina Street, SE23 (4 bedroom House)

£800,000

property description

In the heart of the ever popular Honor Oak Park, just 3 minutes from the station, is this very hand-some, mid terrace four bedroom Victorian family home. The current owners have loved living in the house after purchasing it following an extensive refurbishment project. They have maintained and further improved it over the years and it is offered to the market in immaculate condition. All the sash windows have been replaced by high spec wooden framed double glazed sash units to the original design with Victorian pattern frosted panes at the lower levels in the front to provide privacy. The house has attractive frontage and a striking facade of old stock brick, large sash windows and an impre...
